Tentative Schedule

Week	Topic	Assessment
1	Introduction
2	Vanilla NNs - Part 1
3	Vanilla NNs - Part 2
4	MLP - Part 1
5	MLP - Part 2
6	CNNs - Part 1	Quiz 1
Recess
7	CNNs - Part 2	Coding test 1
8	RNNs - Part 1
9	RNNs - Part 2	Quiz 2
10	ANNs - Part 1
11	ANNs - Part 2	Coding test 2
12	Conclusion
13		Project delivery

NNs = Neural Networks

MLP = Multi-Layer Perceptron

CNNs = Convolutional Neural Networks

RNNs = Recurrent Neural Networks

ANNs = Attention Neural Networks

Can we start the Quiz/Code Test as later in that day as possible?

As a part-time student with full-time heavy workload job, though I have notified my boss and co-workers, I'm still worried to be late for the test... so can we make the test as late as possible on that day?

CS5242: Suggestion on quiz/test timing to accommodate prayer time

To: Xavier Bresson

Dear Professor Xavier,

My name is from CS5242. Regarding quizzes and coding tests in this module, may I know how many minutes does each last?

In case it takes 1 hour or more, I suggest either to do it very early in the lecture or a bit late near end of lecture. For muslims, there is a prayer time we need to do which can be done from 7.10 to 8.20 pm, and the prayer takes about 10 mins. So long as the quiz/coding test does not occupy that whole time range, it should be ok.

Thank you

Regards,
